

the Chancellor Court, upon other and distinct grounds, questioning the right of the State to levy the tax, &c.

The President of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company has given notice that, in consequence of the recent passage, by the Legislature, of an act to re-establish Corporations from issuing obligations redeemable otherwise than in gold or silver, "which act is alleged to have been especially designed to prevent the issue, in compliance with the expressed wishes of their creditors, of 'real certificates,'" the issue of said certificates is suspended.

The Money market at Boston is represented as being easier. The out-door rate was 12 1/2 cent. The expense for the week ending April 7, amounted to $263. Total exports of specie since the 1st January, $63,888.00.

The statistics in the Rio Mercantile Journal of the trade of that city for 1849, show that its commerce with Baltimore largely exceeds that of most other United States ports. Of 233 American vessels arrived last year, there were from Baltimore 62 Americans and 4 German. The quantity of flour imported was 244,812 bushels. Of this quantity 30,373 bushels were from Baltimore; 53,384 bushels were from Gallego, and 33,384 bushels were from Havasu. The quantity of coffee exported during the year was 1,710,707 bags, of which 727,121 bags were shipped to the United States, and the rest to the various points in Europe. The shipments to the ports of the United States were as follows: To Baltimore, 213,450 bags; to Boston, 44,035 bags; to Charleston, 24,929 bags; to Mobile, 5,850 bags; to New Orleans, 367,419 bags; to New York, 1,862,811 bags; and to Philadelphia, 46,622 bags. The average of the exports of the last five years to the several ports of the United States shows an increase to Baltimore of 69,449 bags; to New Orleans of 55,393 bags; to Philadelphia, 10,352 bags; and a decrease to Boston of 9,169 bags; to Mobile of 2,104 bags; and to New York of 4,324 bags.
